

BLEND OF

For over a decade now, Blendof have been dripping sweat, blood and smiles across any stage or floor that was strong enough to hold them. The band, hailing from Ulm in southern Germany, lives for cramming into vans and dragging themselves into the unknown.

Blendof are living proof that Punk Rock is, and should always be recognized as, a spectrum, and it's a spectrum that this undeniable gang of cohorts is not afraid to draw wide influence from. Fusing together lashings of Punk Rock, Melodic Hardcore and Emo and topping it off with socially and politically focused yet deeply personal lyrics, Blendof have created a sound for themselves that arguably fits under a wide collection of punk sub genres and is always performed with "a shitload of passion"!
